Participants from various institutions registered for the programme and they also took part actively. The programme began with the invocation and followed by the welcome address by Dr. Sridhar Swaminathan, Head and Assistant professor of Sanskrit. Dr. T. Venkatesan, principal of the college in his presidential address highlighted the peculiar features of the college to the participants. The participants also captivated when they came to know about the gurukula system of life training imparted to the students. Dr. S. Sridhar swaminathan introduced erudite scholar Prof. C. R. Anantaraman, Head, PG. Department of Applied Indian Philosophy, Vivekananda College, Tiruvedakam west, Madurai who was the resource person and he delivered a mind blowing talk on the topic SATIRE LITERATURE OF NILAKANTHA DIKSHITA. The resource person has transferred his forty years of teaching experience to the teaching fraternities across the country and they also become spell bound by the address of the same. Regarding the topic: Satire literature is a very important aspect in Sanskrit literature and it is the need of the hour. The topic chosen by the resource person covers two texts: (a) Kalividambanam and (b) Sabhaaranjanasatakam, both are from the pen of Nilakantha Dikṣita. The author of the text Nilakantha Dikṣita has made a genuine and gentle attempt to moralize the society. Foul plays made by the professionals in the society during 17th Century A.D. are explained implicitly in the text, out of that the resource person has explained all the important verses to the participants in nut shell. The session was very interesting and informative one. During the doubt clarifying interaction session all the participants expressed their gratitude to the resource person and they also got their doubts clarified from the resource person. The programme concluded with the formal vote of thanks and concluding prayer.
